Washington Journal, October 4, 2011

Representative Allen West (R-FL) talked about the House congressional agenda. Topics included the upcoming vote on a continuing resolution, President Obama's jobs plan, tax policy, and free trade agreements. He also responded to telephone calls and electronic communications.

For entire video, click CSPAN