

Feb 11, 2011 (WASHINGTON)---- Congressman Allen West (FL-22) announces today a local South Florida business owner will testify in an upcoming hearing for the House Committee on Small Business. Bill Feinberg, President and CEO of Allied Kitchen and Bath, will act as a witness during the Committee's hearing on the state of the small business economy on February 16th.

"As a member of the House Committee on Small Business, I'm proud that one of my constituents has accepted my invitation to tell his story and educate Congress on what it can do to help set the conditions for small businesses to succeed," West said. "Small businesses are the key to economic success in the 22nd Congressional District and across America. I look forward to hearing from Mr. Feinberg and other small business owners."

Feinberg, owner of Allied Kitchen and Bath in Ft. Lauderdale, is scheduled to testify Wednesday, February 16th at 1 p.m. The main topics will be health care, regulations and taxes.

For more information or to schedule an interview with Congressman West or Mr. Feinberg, contact 202-226-2149.

*Update: Check out Congressman West and Mr. Feinberg on Fox News