

(Washington)--- Congressman Allen West (FL-22) proudly announces the winners of this year's Congressional Art Competition.

1st place winner: Steven Taylor/ Lake Worth Christian School: "Seven Men on a Motorcycle"

2nd place winner : Eleanor Schlechter/Benjamin School: "Peekaboo"

3rd place winners: Christian Sendler/ Benjamin School: "Make A Wish"

Jailin Rinderman/ Cardinal Gibbons High School: "The Pier"

Lake Worth Christian School winner Steven Taylor will soon be heading to Washington, D.C. to display his artwork in the Cannon Office Building walkway to the Capitol, and attend a ceremony with Congressman West. Taylor is also eligible for a college scholarship to study art.

The second place winner will have their artwork displayed in Congressman West's congressional office on Capitol Hill.

The third place entries will be displaying their artwork in Congressman West's District offices located in Broward and Palm Beach counties.

The 29th Annual Congressional Art exhibition is entitled "An Artistic Discovery," and will feature exceptional artwork from students from all 435 Congressional Districts in the United States.

To schedule an interview with the students, contact Communications Director, Angela Sachitano at 202-226-2149

*For pictures of winners, click here