

Renewal Coalition raises $50,000 at Inaugural Dogtags & Dice (TC Palm)

By Rena Toppe

The Renewal Coalition, formerly A Wounded Warriors Second Chance, held its inaugural Dogtags & Dice cocktail reception fundraiser on Veteran's Day, raising more than $50,000. Held at the Lankler residence on Riverside Drive in Jupiter, the event featured entertainment, casino gaming, a live auction and much more. Congressman Allen West, who was the group's honored guest, gave a moving tribute to the work and mission of the Renewal Coalition and spoke about the brave men and women making sacrifices for our freedom each and every day. Quickly a sell-out, more than 150 supporters and friends were in attendance.

The Renewal Coalition would like to thank the generous sponsors of Dogtags & Dice, who include Presenting Sponsors: Calusa Creek Tree Farm; One Eyed Jack: Sea View Radio and Barry & Company, PA Certified Public Accountants; King of Hearts: Vision Technology; Queen of Hearts: C-J Transportation Services and Woolems, Inc.; Jack of Hearts: Seacoast Bank, Richard Apple/Apple Core Scuba, Wilbur Plumbing, Thomas Altman/The Altman Family and Julie and Mike Berube/ Technimetals.

All proceeds from Dogtags & Dice will be used to assist the mission of the Renewal Coalition, which is to assist wounded service members and their families in their transition from military to civilian life by offering a vacation experience at Florida residences with the intent of providing these families a relaxed, pleasant and welcoming environment.
