

Below is a popular chart of the ten year federal program growth rates from one of our recent town halls.

It illustrates clearly – and frighteningly -- that we are not reducing the size and scope of the federal government. Instead, we continue to see it grow, along with our debt and deficits.

We are on an unsustainable path when it comes to our economic security, and to continue on this path is immoral.

Ten-Year Federal Program Growth Rates

Program	2002 Funding	2012 Funding	P
Energy Conservation	$878 million	$9.4 billion
Food Stamps	$20.6 billion	$75.6 billion
Elementary Education	$25.9 billion	$87.8 billion
Medicaid	$147.5 billion	$275 billion
Housing Assistance	$33.2 billion	$59.6 billion
Community Development	$5.9 billion	$10.6 billion
Ground Transportation	$40.1 billion	$65.3 billion
Federal Employee Retirement	$85.1 billion	$127.6 billion
Unemployment Compensation	$83.3 billion	$124.4 billion
Real Gross Domestic Product	$11.46 trillion	$13.43 trillion
Family Income	$51,398	$49,445	